FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE MORNING HERALD,
Titusville, Thursday Eve., Nov. 2, 1865.

The foreign news has had the effect of strengthening the market in New York. The bullion in the Bank of England has increased £34,000, and this evidences that the drain for specie on London had ceased for the present has removed the apprehensions of an increased rate of discount by the Bank of England. The London discount market was easier on October 19, and Erie had advanced to 66¾. United States five twenty bonds were, however, lower. These facts strengthen the opinion formerly intelligent capitalists in this country, that American railway securities are at the present time the cheapest properties, as investments, offering on the markets either in this country or in Europe. The attention of British capitalists has been directed especially towards them since the rebellion ended, and their investigations have led to considerable purchases in our railroad securities for investment. The "exchange funding" operation recently brought on the market for $60,000,000 has weakened all our government securities, because the nature points out a continual increase in the amount to be thrown upon the market. Although the third sales of five twenty bonds is not worth above 100 compared with the first series, still they form a virtual loan at government bonds bearing six per cent. gold interest and it is therefore difficult to maintain prices in the face of the frequent additions of the quantity floating on the market. The latest quotations for the twenty bonds in London was 54¾. Middling Orleans cotton had declined three farthings to one penny, closing at 23d sterling

Petroleum stocks were irregular at the first board on Tuesday, Pithole Creek being the most active at a decline of 50c from the point reached at the close of Monday's first board. United States was 5c lower; Hamilton 10c lo. At the second public board Hasbrouck Farm closed at 80c; Bradley $1 35; Cherry Run 50c, Exchange 75, Empire City 30, Germania 40c; Pithole Creek $10 90; Webster $6 20 @ 20.

NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE®

Titusville Morning Herald.

Titusville, Friday, Nov. 3, 1865.

The National Lincoln Monument Association.

An official letter over the signature of Richard J. Oglesby, Governor of the State of Illinois, addressed to the Executives of the States, has been published, for the purpose of bringing before the entire country the objects of the National Lincoln Monument Association. As is well known, Mr. Lincoln's remains lie interred in Oak Ridge Cemetery, near the city of Springfield, the capital of Illinois. It was proposed to erect a monument to the memory of the martyred President, and accordingly the Association whose title is mentioned was organized on the 11th of May, 1865. As Springfield was Mr. Lincoln's home, it was thought well to build the marble at the place of his interment. It might have been erected at Washington, certainly, but the country can afford to dispense with this, and yet do the important deceased fitting honors in the great West. Gov. Oglesby appeals to the nation for help. In different ways about fifty-three thousand dollars have been raised, but two hundred and fifty thousand dollars are called for in order to carry out the design in a proper spirit. It is considered best to have the whole sum in hand before the work is commenced, so that no embarrassments or delays may be caused for want of funds. "As the object is a national one," says the Governor, "to honor the memory of a national man, endeared to the whole country by his sacrifices to preserve the National Union, we do not hesitate to appeal to the nation to aid us by reasonable subscriptions to build this monument." The more particular object of the letter is to ask the Governors of the respective States to take official notice of the subject and to bring it to the attention of the people. We turn to this subject with melancholy pleasure. If any man since the days of Washington has deserved well of his countrymen, that man is Abraham Lincoln, and therefore the appeal of Gov. Oglesby will not be suffered to be made without avail.

No doubt the project will be brought before the Legislature, but something more than this ought to be done. A national monument in our country should be a national gift. While it would be well to receive large subscriptions, we should have the work done through the voluntary offerings of the mass of our citizens. For this purpose we propose that collections be lifted in the schools, churches and public societies of different sorts, and that a fitting contribution be made. Every citizen of this country, however humble, feels that he is equal politically to his neighbor, and that the government was preserved for him just as much as for the wealthiest man in the land. And when President Lincoln was slain, the poor man felt the blow as keenly as anybody else.—We have therefore no hesitation in recommending this subject to our citizens, and we earnestly hope that collections may be made in Pennsylvania which shall be in keeping with her dignity and importance as the Keystone of the great Union arch. We trust that this appeal of Gov. Oglesby may not be made in vain, and indeed we are sure it will not, if it is duly properly managed. A popular dime subscription would suffice to raise all the money needed.

Since writing the above, we have seen notice issued by Gov. Oglesby to the effect that the entire net proceeds of the sale of the steel engravings entitled "Abraham Lincoln and his Emancipation Proclamation" have been donated by the proprietors of it to the fund. This is an additional stimulus, if any is needed, to the prosecution of the objects of the association. Other publishers of works of art may follow in the wake, but we esteem it eminently proper that the proceeds of this engraving should be bestowed upon the monument erected to the memory of the man who may be justly called the liberator of the race.

A Murderer Convicted.

Mrs. Grinder, who has for some time been on trial at Pittsburg, for poisoning several persons, has last week found guilty of murder in the first degree. Commenting on this case the Pittsburg Gazette says:

How many people she has sent to their last account will probably never be known. The list of her known victims is frightful enough in its efficient to appal the keenest love of the horrible. Every man, woman, or child that came within her reach during the period covered by her legal examination that has taken place, seems to have been victimized by her, the one exception being her husband. When she selected a victim she first made him or her sick, by the administration of poison in food or drink, then proffered her kindly services as nurse, then improved every opportunity by following up the poison, dose after dose, in tea, biscuits, in soup, in milk, or in any other possible way, till she while enjoying the misfortune inflicted, yet ever proving herself into service as the kindest and most sympathetic of nurses.

If any other nurse accidently came in and distracted her operations by administering unbeloned food or drink, she grew jealous and got them out of the way as soon as possible, generally with a dose of poison not quite sufficient to kill instantly. It seems to have been no part of her plan to kill any one outright, as that deprived her of the luxury of witnessing the tortures which accompany slow poisoning, and hence her doses were limited and intended to be cumulative. It is to this fact, that many of her victims escaped with life, circumstances having intervened to put them beyond her reach before she had time, according to her plan, to complete their destruction.

—The ten cent fractional currency has not yet been distributed to the public, but a few specimens have been submitted to inspection. The currency is nearly ready for issue. It differs from the first ten cent note which was printed in green, in the increased size and variety of engraving. It is half an inch longer, and nearly a quarter of an inch wider than the former. The medallion head of Washington forms the centre of the vignette; on the edge are minute representations of the busts of Jefferson and of Hamilton, and on each side of the medallion is ornamental work are the figures "10." There is a fine border, and the signatures of the United States Treasurer and of the Register of the Treasury are always the same. The backs are printed in green, and there is very little bold printing.

—The Supreme Court of Missouri, in the case of Father Cummings, a Catholic priest, who was fined and sent to school down the preaching without taking the oath of loyalty, has affirmed the sentence, thus sustaining the constitutionality of the ordinance.

TELEGRAPH.

Afternoon Dispatches.

Expressly for The Morning Herald by Western Union Line.

New York, Nov. 2.

The Times Washington dispatch says:

The naval court martial for the trial of Lieut. Col. Ward Marston, of the U. S. Marine corps, was commenced yesterday by order of the Sec. of War.

The receipts of Internal Revenue yesterday amounted to $3,500,635,71. Receipts of Customs yesterday were $10,000,000 in gold.

New York, Nov. 3.

The Times special says:

The papers in the case of Wirz were yesterday evening placed in the hands of the President for his approval or disapproval of findings and judgment of the Military Commission. Up to the present moment it is not known that the President has disposed of the case.

The World's special says:

The great pressure of public business on the President has prevented him from doing any thing in the Wirz case. The report of the record made by the Judge Advocate Gen. has not even been laid before the Executive.

Letters were received at the Freedmen's Bureau complaining of the treatment of the freedmen in Annarundel county. Every effort will be made for the abatement of these complaints.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher had a interview with the President yesterday and again this morning. He is more that ever pleased with the President's policy.

A special Cabinet meeting was held at noon today. There is little or no doubt but that the Adams Russell correspondence of the Alabama piracy is under consideration. The reply of Mr. Seward to Earl Russell was read at the meeting, and duly considered, though in some quarters it is decided that the dispatch to Minister Adams went out on to-day's steamer.

Washington, Nov. 2.

The government has received from Charleston, South Carolina, a quantity of letters, written in the spring of 1865 by the more honest Postmasters of places south of Charleston, complaining money and postage stamps, but which were all seized at that city by the Confederates. The stamps being useless to them they were allowed to remain.

The Government has also received $74,000 for postage due from Charleston before the war.

Commissioner Orton received the farewell greetings of the clerks of the Internal Revenue Bureau, and left for New York last evening.

Commissioner Rollins, who returned last evening, assumed his new duties to-day.

Sixty-one thousand certificates of indebtedness were passed at the Treasury yesterday to the credit of the various purchasing Postmasters throughout the country, to liquidate the outstanding claims of Government contractors.

Special to the Herald:

Washington, Nov. 1.

The fifty dollar counterfeit greenback is such a successful piece of workmanship that about a dozen copies of it have been paid over the counters at the Treasury. The veteran Treasurer, Gen. Spinner, acknowledged himself puzzled to distinguish the good from the bad in the case.

Capt. Woodruff of the Reserve Corps, has been charged with making out the rolls, and Maj. Lamunte is to muster out those veterans who wish it as soon as the rolls are made out. Two or three days will elapse before the men of this corps in this department will have an opportunity to vote on the question.

The case of Capt. Pellitt, the Alexandria jailor, charged with cruelty to prisoners, will come up before the military commission to-morrow.—Evidence will be adduced to prove Pellitt guilty of outrages but little inferior to Andersonville.—He was in the Veteran Reserve Corps, and was arrested by order of the Secretary of War for inhumanity toward citizens of Alexandria, as well as Union prisoners.

Hallowe'en.

Celebrated in song, tradition and story comes the festive season of Hallowe'en; surrounded with the wierd superstitions and witching histories of the land of the Thistle. In some parts of the country, Hallowe'en is celebrated with as much cheerfulness and earnestness as it ever was observed upon the moors or in the mountain glens of Scotland. Among the early Scots it was merely a religious festival, but subsequently became a national one. Carlyle says: "Our Hallowe'en had passed and repassed, in rude mirth and laughter, since the era of the Druids, but no Theocritus, till Burns, discovered in it the materials of a Scottish idyl." "Carlage Burns' poem on Hallowe'en has done more to perpetuate the festival than any single prejudice or superstition which has prevailed since that epic was written. It may not be out of place therefore to quote a few stanzas for the enjoyment of our readers.—Hallowe'en was celebrated by the masses more than by the lairds who ruled at Scottish society, and it was on this account, no doubt, that Burns gave it so much significance. The author we have already quoted, says: "A Scottish peasant's life was the meanest and rudest of all lives, till Burns became a poet in it, and a poet of it; found it a man's life, and therefore significant to men."—But let us to our Hallowe'en:

Among the bonny winding banks,
Where Doon rins, wimplin' clear,
Where Bruce once rul'd the martial ranks,
And shook his Carrick spear,
Some merry, friendly, country folks,
Together did convene,
To burn their nits an' pou their stocks,
An' haud their Hallowe'en,
Fu' blithe that night.

This lassies feat, an' cleanly neat,
Mair taken Time wiles they're fire;
Their faces blythe, fu' sweetly kythe,
Hearts leal, an' warm an' kin';
The lads sae trig, wi' wooer babs,
Weel knotted on their garters,
Some unco blate, an' some wi' gabs,
Gar lasses' hearts gang startin
Whiles fast that night.

The auld guidwife's weel hoarded nuts
Are round an' round divided,
An' mony lads' and lasses' fates,
Are there that night decided:
Some kindle, couthie side by side
An' burn the gither frindly;
Some start awa wi' saucy pride,
An' jump out-owre the chimbla
Fu' high that night.

Wi' mony sangs, an' friendly cracks,
I wat they dinna weary;
An' unco tales, and funnie jokes,
Their auger was tirlin' at the kerry,
'Till butter'd sa'ns wi' fragrant lang,
Set a' their gabbs a steepin';
Syne wi' a social glass o' strang,
They parted at cauverin
Fu' blythe that night.

The whole poem is a gem and is worthy of the festival it describes.

THE POPE AND THE FREEMASONS.—The Grand Orient, says the Paris correspondent of the Independence Belge, has convoked a meeting of its principal dignitaries, and it is resolved that an answer shall be immediately given to the charge brought against Freemasonry by the Pope, as it also will that M. Viennet, one of the chiefs of the Scotch Rite, proposes, notwithstanding his advanced age of eighty-five, to take up the glove thrown down by the Pope.

It is not an encouraging sign that the articles usually selected from the Northern papers for reproduction in Southern journals are taken from newspapers that, during the war, opposed its prosecution, defended secession, and, in several instances, were put under ban for their open and bitter hostility to the government. The mischief of this is that the Southern people are led to think that these papers reflect popular sentiment at the North—an error which will be suddenly dispelled when Congress meets.

—Some young fellows dipping for roots at Vincennes, Ind., lately found $7,000 in gold instead, and didn't grumble.

—There is a rumor that Hon. Salmon P. Chase is about to wed Miss Mary Wiggins, a beautiful belle of Cincinnati.

NATIONAL

PETROLEUM ASSOCIATION,

PROSPECTUS.

GEORGE B. REED & CO., having purchased twenty two acres of good oil territory in fee in one of the best localities on Pithole Creek, which is now proven to be the best oil territory in Pennsylvania, and known as part of the Anderson Farm, the balance of this farm has been lately purchased by the Union Oil Association for immediate development. They have already contracted their surveys, preparatory to putting down several wells.

The property is all low, flat land, every acre available for boring, and is located in a very deep valley, the same being very heavily timbered (principally cherry and oak) and golden oil flows the upper strata, and is similar to the famous Holmden Farm, on same creek, upon which the celebrated Bacon Island and Twin wells, now doing about 2,000 barrels per day, are located.

There are some sixty wells going down within a short distance of the Anderson property, with good indications of oil, some of which are on adjoining farms.

The above described property we propose as a basis for the formation of an association, to be called the National Petroleum Association.

More or less of our time, instead of the Association being at the expense of putting down wells, we shall use its to furnish all materials for putting down one well to be called the Mutual Oil Gas Well, and to sink the same to 600 feet, unless oil is found in paying quantities at a less depth, and to test for ten days after oil well shall have been completed, the well to be commenced immediately after the organization of the association, and to be prosecuted with vigor, night and day, till completed, after which we hereby agree to surrender the same, together with the machinery and tools, to the association, free of all expense. We also agree to survey the property into one half acre lots and furnish the Association with maps of survey. It is confidently believed that the said lots can be leased for a handsome bonus, reserving one bbl of the oil as the land interest. Thus it will be readily seen that there can be no earthly risk to the stockholders, for the profits of the well, when completed, together with the bonus realized from the sale of the leases, will no doubt not only exceed the cost of the territory, but make a handsome dividend to the stockholders. Again the stockholders have double interests (undivided) so that we do not dare issuing of stock.

Land in this vicinity is rapidly rising in value, and it is confidently believed that each share in this association will readily sell for at least six times its cost, and cost within a short time.

The capital of the association shall be Fifty Thousand Dollars, and there shall be One Hundred shares, the organization of which shall be Five Hundred Dollars each, and each share shall be entitled to one vote, and the association shall be conducted in accordance with the laws of Pennsylvania, and Secretary who shall issue certificate of stock, and substitute the same on the receipt given by the agent in trust.

From the Titusville HERALD

A New organization.

Bogus oil companies with high sounding names and very, very few assets, have done much injury to the true interests of the oil region, than any other oil spring. But thanks to a bountiful Providence, although the oil has not shaken from its vast and yearly fed fountains by those imposing, yet it is now very in a solid basis rapidly to roll a rich harvest, and has already commenced operations, and upon a solid and substantial foot.

We say, there are in all oil pitches, some of them now [illegible] organized by Messrs. George B. Reed & Co., of this place. Their plan is to place the oil of their property, and thus stock it in dedicated interests, so that the shareholders know exactly what they hold in the association. The property is held by a board of trustees and the officers of the association, with the names of the original subscribers, are to be recorded. This will prevent another issue of stock, and secure a profitable investment, if the property is well cared with and meet. They have sold a lot of land on Pithole which they are now making in an association which they propose to organize, and, if we put out a few, the holders [illegible] a line of market, in hopes the new company prove profitable investment for their shareholders.

THE ANDERSON FARM ON PITHOLE

Editors of Morning Herald

A few days since I surveyed and mapped for Messrs. George B. Reed & Co. a tract of land, lying on the main Pithole Creek, within one half of oil land known as a part of the Anderson Farm, lying on the main Pithole Creek, within one half of the oil well. The tract I surveyed and mapped for them, is a portion of the property they intend to form into a Stock Company, to wit:

Thus, in a little in the affairs of men
With [illegible] of the oil [illegible] on to fortune
Out of all the very [illegible] of [illegible]
Rich and in shallows and miseries

The truth of that important saying, has been most signally illustrated in the history of the Pithole Oil Dorado. Disappointments, with abortive attempts, and failures in this oil, and in the [illegible] of [illegible], and its contents, built a solid deep foundation, and all have [illegible] the [illegible] to the surface, and the [illegible] of Stock, Mines, Land and Home, are well established, only with a depth, improved and with the [illegible] and land for all purposes. I feel [illegible] the [illegible] to the [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible]

WE learn that an accidental fire occurred at well No. 8, lease 5, Morey farm, on Wednesday evening. It was caused by the careless use of a lantern. The fire was easily extinguished and no damage was done.

MR. SAMUEL BLAKELY will make collections for subscriptions for this paper this week. Our readers will please bear in mind that by paying quarterly in advance, ($2 50) they have the benefit of the yearly rate; if by the month, $3 00.

A CARD.—The Hebrew Benevolent Society o Titusville would publicly express their acknowledgments to Messrs. Frey & Bear, for the gratuitous use of Petroleum Hall, on the evening of Oct. 12th, for the entertainment given by the Society on that occasion.

By order of the President,

F. JESRISON, Sec'y.

PROGRESS OF OLEOPOLIS.—We received a private dispatch from Col. Bates, at Oleopolis, on yesterday, stating that the U. S. Telegraph line had been completed to that point, and is now in working order. Tubing, Railroad, River navigation and Telegraph, all in the course of three months. Fire Oleopolis!

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting Mr. James D. Guild, of Brockport, N. Y., formerly and for many years a resident of Titusville. Mr. G. has spent a few days in revisiting familiar scenes hereabout, and witnessing the rapid strides of our thriving borough toward municipal greatness and prosperity. He leaves for Brockport to-day.

PASTOR FOR PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—At a meeting of the Society of the First Presbyterian Church, held on Wednesday evening, a call was unanimously extended to Rev. Mr. Taylor, of Staten Island, to fill the pastoral vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Curtis. It is understood that Mr. Taylor will accept the call, and will enter upon his duties within a fortnight.

ROBBERY AT A HOTEL.—On Wednesday evening a robbery was perpetrated at the Railroad Hotel on Franklin street. It appears that five men were lodged in a single room. One of them, a teamster, had the sum of $110 in his possession, and on getting up in the morning discovered that he had been robbed. The police are investigating the affair, but the money has not yet been recovered.

ERIE AND ATLANTIC & GREAT WESTERN RAILWAYS.—We find the following in the New York Tribune:

No arrangements has yet been made between the Erie Railway and the Atlantic & Great Western. It is currently reported that the latter has been in treaty with roads south of Erie, and have obtained facilities which will enable them to run the Erie and reach this city by a line sixty-four miles shorter than the present route.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—Counterfeit 50s, legal tender notes, so exact that one of the most experienced bankers in Springfield, Mass., says they are good, are in circulation in Massachusetts and Connecticut. The bills are dated March 10, 1863, and are of the new series, letter C. In the counterfeit, the shading of the last 8 in the large "United States" fills the upper loop, while in the genuine only a portion is filled. The green on the back is paler in the bogus than in the genuine bill. It is the most dangerous counterfeit which has appeared for a long time.

All accounts agree that the present production of oil the wells in what is strictly known as the oil region of Pennsylvania, and which lies entirely within Venango county, is upwards of fourteen thousand barrels daily.—Cor. N. Y. World, Meadville, Oct. 30.

The total number of gallons for six months given is 3,017,461, equal to 179,365 barrels of 40 gallons each. Add 179,365 barrels for six months, from July 1st to December 31st, and the product for the year foots 1,158,730 barrels, or say 1,350,000 barrels, as the last half will doubtless exceed the first half of the year.

NEW VARIETY THEATRE.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of the New Variety Theatre, (late Crittenden Hall) which has been leased by Rhodes & Pullman for the winter season. The interior of the hall is now being remodelled, the stage enlarged, and the preparations hurried forward to open on Tuesday evening next. We learn from the managers that an entire new corps of operatic, terpsichorean and dramatic performers have been secured, and a new programme will be offered nightly. The names of performers and programme will be duly announced.

ANOTHER FIRE AT PITHOLE.—At an early hour on Wednesday morning the engine house of well No. 188, Baldwin lease, on the Morey farm, took fire and was destroyed. But for the energetic labors of the men employed at the well and those on 189, adjoining, great mischief would have resulted. The latter well is producing 30 barrels per day, and its tank contained about 100 barrels of oil.

The fire originated from the supply pipe of the furnace, which conducts the oil as fuel. The displacement of the valve which regulates the supply caused the oil to flow too rapidly, and before the engineer was aware of the accident, the conflagration had begun.

The former fire on the same farm was attributable to the same cause, and the burning of the Sherman well Wednesday. There should be some improved method for using oil as fuel at the wells, or the practice should be at once abandoned.

Pithanniville.

[From OuO wn Correspondent.]

PITHANNIVILLE, Pa., Nov. 2, 1865.

On Monday last this village was surprised about noon by the arrival of some of your noted citizens in the persons of Chief of Police Cannell and Policeman Davis and Walsh. We soon learned they were here in company with one Ed. Darrow, of your city, upon the subject of a complaint made before Squire Connolly of this village, by one Mansfield, that D. had taken without his consent all his money and watch, and then shot him because he refused to stay in his company longer, and that too on the Sabbath day. The news of these noted arrivals, and of so important an investigation, soon brought together a large gathering at the Magistrate's office to witness the proceedings, the details of which were so accurately narrated by your skilled H. C. B., I deem unnecessary to do it again. Suffice it to say, amid the excitement, the whole proceedings were conducted quietly and in order. The examination was conducted with ability for the prosecution and defence by Messrs. McAllister and Guthrie, lawyers at your city, and resulted in holding the defendant to bail in sum of five thousand dollars for highway robbery. For want of such bail he was committed to jail to await his trial the last of the present month at Franklin.

Oil developments about here are progressing. The Cottaraugus well, so called, two miles east from here, has shown signs, and produced oil in such a manner and amount that if in Pithole would be counted upon with high hopes. Messrs. Dearborn and Cooper are testing a well put down by them for the Kennebec Petroleum Co., on Scarcevo Run, three fourths of a mile from Oil Creek, and two miles south-west from here, and three miles and a half from your city, that is not only producing oil, but it is of the lubricating kind. The McCaslan well near this village has produced a number of barrels of oil. The Walter Scott Co. have put down a well just below Enterprise, and have good cause for encouragement. Some of the oil produced from this well has been shown me, and is evidently of the first quality. Each and all of these developments proving that there is oil underlying all this territory, and leaves the question to be solved only by actual experiment where to find it in paying quantities. S. N. B.

NEW CHURCHES.—The new church edifices in course of erection by the Baptist and Universalist societies, respectively, are progressing finely.

The cost of the Baptist Church is estimated at $30,000. Its dimensions will be 45 by 80 feet, and 26 feet from floor to ceiling. The foundations are of solid stone masonry, four feet in thickness. There are three substantial buttresses on either side, and two at each corner of the building. The windows are of gothic form, sixteen feet in length, and will be fitted with diamond glass, stained. The spire of this church will be provided with a clock, visible from every part of the city.

The Universalist Church, now nearly completed, is designed by the same architect, Mr. Melcher. The main building will be seventy feet in length by forty five feet wide. The ceiling and walls will be tastefully decorated and the nave elaborately ornamented and set off with highly finished Corinthian columns, in fresco. The slips are arranged so as to form segments of circles. The gallery will occupy the front of the interior, and the organ the tower. The spire will be ninety feet high. Pending the completion of the church, the society continue their services in Lyceum Hall. The Baptist congregation meet in Corinth Hall.

COUNTERFEIT SCRIP.—The amount of counterfeit scrip of all denominations now in circulation is incredible. It would hardly be an exaggeration to say that there is nearly as much in the hands of the people as of the genuine. And yet it is a matter of sheer carlessness, for there is no bogus currency in the market but what can be easily detected by even a slight examination. People have come at last to look upon it as a matter of course, and will accept bad scrip, knowing it to be such. If, on the other hand, there were a general determination not to receive the worthless stuff, the community would soon rid themselves of the abomination.

CROSSWALKS.—With the recurrence of rain and mud—which seem chronic to our municipal system about these days—everybody seems forcibly reminded of the necessity of improving crosswalks and constructing new ones; but there are comparatively few business men who are awake to the advantages of providing such public accommodations at their own expense. Every man should realize that a safe and convenient access to his place of business is of as much consequence to him as any improvement he can establish; for the mass of the people in disagreeable weather will always take more pains to keep out of the mud in doing their shopping, than they will to hunt up low prices at the cost of getting spattered and deluged into the bargain.—Our principal streets are for the most part provided with good walks, but the crosswalks, at the intersection of streets, are with few exceptions abominable, and in many instances entirely wanting. We don't like to exhort private citizens to expend money which ought to come from the corporation fund, but as these desirable improvements can be obtained in no other way, we venture to say that the parties most directly interested will realize an advantage from such investments for the public convenience. The public will not be slow to appreciate the importance of bestowing trade and favor in return for business enterprise and sagacity.

EBIE, Meadville, Corry and a host of lesser villages have perfected arrangements for a course of winter lectures. Titusville has not yet made a move in this direction. Ought we to be a little ashamed?

THE nightingale has no peer among singing birds, the antelope is king of all graceful quadrupeds, and among a thousand perfumes Pinlon's "Night Blooming Cereus" stands alone—matchless in purity, unapproached in voluptuous richness and more durable than any other floral extract. Sold everywhere.

PARSON'S MAIL DAILY.—One mile from town, on the Cary Farm. All persons wishing to obtain pure and unadulterated milk the ensuing season, would do well to apply to the undersigned in person, or address him (Box 347) stating amount wanted and place to be delivered.

Nov. 1, d4t. PARSONS & SON.

VERY STRANGE BUT TRUE.—Among the multitude of articles science has produced to benefit mankind, nothing has met with such universal approval, or won for itself such an immense patronage, as the Old Homestead Wild Cherry Bitters. Unlike most other Bitters, they are no mere, and contain no poison. The medicinal ingredients have rendered with the liquor, produces a strongly medicated dandy-mouthed article, as soft and as pure as the best of wine. Most everybody buys them—everybody likes them, and the people will have none others. Acting directly upon the liver, they cleanse the stomach, purify the blood, and prevent disease. They are a certain cure for Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Scrofula, and all blood diseases. They cure Chronic Diarrhoea, Pimples and Blotches on the face. For coughs and colds they are superior to any Cherry Pectoral. To persons of sedentary habits, and those who feel a loss of strength or want of ambition, these Bitters will impart tone and vital energy to the system. They increase the appetite and strengthen the body. To NURSING MOTHERS AND DELICATE FEMALES, and at that critical period known as the TURN OF LIFE, these Bitters will be found of incalculable value. Remember and purchase the Old Homestead Wild Cherry Bitters, manufactured by Dr. T. H. Shugerland & Co., New York City. Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.

Clarktown.

CLARKTOWN, Oct. 31, 1865.

Editors Morning Herald:

This is the next spot to locate in of all Oildom. We have oil, water, pure air, fine views, splendid plank roads, good followers and capital hotels. The Keystone and Warren hotels are both good houses. Bob Hill, that prince of jolly good fellows and best of landlords, greets you at the Keystone. The business of Pithole Creek is centering here rapidly, the fine building sites to be leased at low rent or bought at still lower figures in fee, together with the pure bracing mountain air and the abundance of beautiful water, has induced many of our best business men to settle here. Our bank and machine shops, our hotels and grocery, our merchants and mechanics, are daily to give unmistakable evidences of a healthful and thriving growth—yes, makes a better show than you find on Pithole Creek. We have the plank road passing through our Main street, we have flowing wells within a stone's throw and more being struck every day, and moreover they come at each successive blow. The McKinney Bottomless Mossy Farm flank our right, the Holinden farm with its fountains of gushing wealth is lying but a few rods south of us, and our own McKinney Bottoms can but make us the allyest of the ally. Come then and send your friends to

About two hundred acres situate on the Allegheny River, about 10 miles below Franklin, Pa.
